TO MOTHERS

Ill., President Chicago Arcade Club, Addresses Comforting Words to Women Regarding Childbirth.

"DEAR Mas. PERSONAL Mothers need not dread child value of Lydia E. Pink-Vegetable Compound.

months after, and at the time I sught death was a welcome relief; ghbor advised Lydin E. Pink ham's Vegetable Compound, and used that, together with your Pills and Sanative Wash for four months before the child's birth; — it brought me wonderful relief. I hardly had an me wenderful renet. I hardly non-an ache or pain, and when the child was ben days old I left my bed strong in health. Every string and fall I newtake ubottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it keeps me in continual excellent health."— Mas J. H. Haskins, 2048 Indiana Ave., III - 25000 forfest if above testim-

Care and careful counsel is what the expectant and would-be mother needs, and this counsel she can secure without cost by writing to Mrs. Pinkham at

900 DROPS

AVegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regula

ing the Stomachs and Bowels of

INFANTS/CHILDREN

Promotes Digestion Cheerful-

ness and Rest Contains neither

Theory of that Dr. SIMCEL PITCHER

A perfect Remedy For Constipa-ion . Sour Stomach . Diarrhoen

Worms Convulsions Feverish

ness and LOSS OF SLEEP.

Fac Sunde Segnature of

Chaff Flatcher.

NEW YORK.

Att months old

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER

5 Dos 5 - 15 Clais

NOT NARCOTIC.

Phosphin Seed-dix Januar -Rindolf Sailer -dates Soul -Jegovones -21 Carbonate Saile - pium Morphine nor Mineral.

DAMAGING DISCLOSURE.

The Mean Report of a Political Candi date for Office to Best His Opponent.

The two candidates for the legislature

The two candidates for the legislatures were speakers from the same platform, states the Chicago Tribune.

"My fedow crizzene," and the candidate with the long black mustache, rasing to speak in his turn, "I am able at last to unmask the hypocrite that has just addressed you. It is a disagrenable duty, but you have a right to know what manner of man be is. Well may be treatble at the disclosure I am about to make for it knocks the has proper the contract of er him and shows him to you in his

tosa pervaded the hall:
ellow strices. In exclaiman, in a ellow strices. In exclaiman, in a ellow strices. In exclaiman, in a ellow the summon people. He goes and chaining hance with everyhood? Pokinne with he does it? I will tell you, does it in deserve you. Fellow citizena, e no herry handed son at tell. Those mes in the palms of his bands were er produced by work. He never sid a s sum in his life. Those callower are
tel. Warts, my follow citizens! Warts!
to in the palms of his hands. Let him it if he can!"
be other candidate couldn't dony it, and est him the election.

The fellow who sits down on a bent pin ocan't see the point of the joke. Milwaukes entinel.

Mr. Henry A. Saizer, of La Crosse, Wie, whose 'Saizera Seeds' are famed the world over, has sailed for Europe, accompanied by his wife. He will dive fists the heart of Russia and Hungary after new seed novel-

A man occasionally takes a day off to celebrate the anniversary of his birth, but when a woman celebrates here she morally takes a year off. Cylingo Diely News.

To Cure a Cold to One Day

Take Laxitive Brome Quinine Tablets. All drugglats refund money it it fulls to cure 200. It's sometimes difficult to tell the dif-ference between the man with a purpose and the one with a pull. Toledo Blade.

Piso's Cure connut be too highly spoken of as a cough cure. J. W. O'Brien, 322 Third Ave., N., Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 6, 1900.

True bravery is shown by performing without eithers what one might be capable of doing before the world. Rechefouchald

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have

Always Bought

Bears the Signature

THE STORY THUS SEA LESSONS.

On the surface heave and roll the waves, Deep, the waters lie untroubled, still; Blow the wild winds here, the tempes

There secure reigns Ocean's mighty will. Father-God, so be it with Thy child-On the surface play life's forces free; Come the storms of sorrew, north-blasts wild.

Doubt and care and grave anxiety.

other it is impossible to say.

say to me?" Hayle began.

to the harbor."

what he had to say.

know Sengkor-Wat?"

"Sengker how much?"

from an old Siamese in Hanoi, but we order. Such a place as you never emples, and all that sort of thing-ying out there all alone in the jungle."

"After that I don't want any more

"No, but you've not a use for other bles as big as pigeon's eggs, I suppose. You've got a use for sapphires, the like of which mortal man never set eyes on before."

"That's certainly so," Hayle replied.

"But what has this Sengkor-Wat to do

"Everything in the world," Kitua-

He looked from Kitwater to Codd.

"It's quite true," said he, after a

"Brave for Sengker-Wat, then!" said

Hayle, "But how do you know all this?"

"Pre told you siready that Coddy found it out," Kitwater replied.

"Looking over his old records he dis-times over.

to have looked for it."

seemed incredulous.

"Rut how big are the ruins?"

Couldy needed his head in confirmation of this fact. But still Hayle

"And you are going to search all that area? It strikes me that you "Don't you believe it. We've got

There was an old Chinese trav-something better to go upon than eler who visited this place in the year -- what was the year, Coddy?"

Codd replied, without hesitation.

"Twelve hundred and fifty-seven,"

"Well, he describes the glory of the ber, where he saw such riches as me tal man had never looked upon before "

treasure chamber #8?" argued Hayle.

ways of finding out; that is, if a man has his wits about him. You've got to

to get on in this world. Coddy has translated it all, and this is what it amounts to: When the king had shown the traveler his treasure, the latter declared that his eyes were so linded by its magnificence that he could scarcely mount the steps to the spot where his majesty gave audience to his people. In another place it mentions that when the king administered

they went elsewhere? Not they!"

"How do I know it?" he asked, by more proof, when I've done, you

I came across a man I hadn't met for several years. He was a Frenchman, who I knew had spent the most of his

on earth, to be had for the mere picking up and carrying away. He had brought away as much of it as he could, but he hadn't time to get it all, before he was chased out by the Chinese, who, he said, were strong in the neighborhood."

happy memory.

"But that doesn't tell you where the

"Perhaps not, but there are other

"Rubies, supphires and gold

The little man thus appealed to nodded his head. He agreed with all his com-ter replied. "That's where those ru-bies are, and, what's more, that's where we are going to find them."

"I've seen Amner," said Hayle, with

Yet within he calm, unruffled peace; Strength—the rule of Thine all-perfect will; Joy, bern of Thy love, dull care's release; Faith that good e'er turks within the III.

livering on thy bosom broad and kind flurdens of the tolling world's bequest, Servest there. O see, thy master, mind. Knowing not fatigue nor mement's raest Patiently to fill thy appointed place, Welcome to the bosom human care, Berre, not be served, self-efface— May 1 in the faithful spirit share.

311 let what time thou raiseth up thy might, Flingest fury, mounting beaven-high, who but fears thee, Ocean infinite? Who can brook thy wrath, thy will defy

Symbol thou of thy Creator-Lord, God of houndless might and majorty, Terrible the judgments of His sword; Brooking no resistance His decree. Yet, like thee, His malesty He hows, Servant of Itta servants to become; lears within His heart their sins and wees Brings them on He's voyage safety home Luther Davis, in N. V. Observer.

My Strangest Case

BY GUY BOOTHBY.

Author of "Dr. Kikola," "The Beautiful White Devil," "Phares, The Egyptian," Utc.

Copyrighted, 190, by Ward, Lock & Co.j.

PART L-CONTINUED Hayle accompanied them into the our, and was a witness of the satisfacion the faudlord endeavored, from incas motives, to conceal. In due carse he followed them to the small. ifling rooms in the yard at the back, and observed that they were placed on either side of himself. He had aleady taken the precaution of rapping pon the walls in order to discover their thickness, and to find out whether the sound of chinking money was to be heard through them. "I must remember that thirty-seven and expense and two Mexican dollars himself. "It would be bad business to allow them to suppose that I had enough to make us all millionaires. more, until I find out what they want." The last time I was here was with when they met again in the courtyard He had got a ennerssion from the Dutch, so he said, to work a portion of the West Coast for shell. He wanted me to go in with him." "And you couldn't see your way "I've seen two Dutch jails," said the other: "and I have no use for them."

"And what happened to Stellman?" asked Hayle, but without any apparent interest. He was thinking of something else at the time. "They got his money, his boat and his shell, with three pearls that would have made your mouth water," replied "And Stellman 2" "Oh, they buried him at Sourabaya.

have heard since that he died of starvation. They don't feed you too well in Dutch jails, especially when you've got a concession and a consul."

The speaker looked up at his companion as he said this, and the other, will be an old man by the time you who, ay I have already said, was not find the treasure, Kitwater, interested in the unfortunate Stellman, or had probably heard the tale before, notided his head in the direcion of the room where the smaller man was engaged on his toilet, to the accompaniment of aplashing water. The movement of the head was as sig-nificant as the nod of the famous lord

"Just the same as ever," the other replied. "Always pushing his nove into old papers and documents, until you'd think he'd make himself ill. Lord, British museum! There's not his equal on ancient Asia in the world."

"And this particular business?" "Ah, you shall hear all about it in the proper time. That'll be to-morrow morning, I reckon. In the meantime you can go to bed, and content yourself with the knowledge that, all being well, you're going to play a hand in the biggest scoop that ever I or anybody else have tackled!"

Mr. Kitwater, for such was the name of the gentleman, began his preparaions for the night, vigorously cursing the mosquitoes as he did so. He was a fine-looking man, with a powerful, though somewhat humorous cast of countenance. His eyes were large and not unkindly. His head was a good. one from a phrenological point of view. but was marred by the possession of engrmous cars which stood out or either side of his head like those of a hat. He wore a close-cropped beard, and he was famous for his strength, which indeed was that of a giant. "Hayle, if I can sum it up aright, is just the same as ever," he said, as he arranged the mosquito netting of his bed. "He doesn't trust me, and I don't trust him. But he'll be none the less useful for that. Let him try to play me false, and, by the Lord Harry, he'll not live to do it again." way of preface. "If you'll listen for a moment, I'll tell you. If you want With this amiable sentiment Mr. Kitvater prepared himself for clumber. Next morning they met at breakmust be difficult to please. When I was up at Moulmein six months ago, ast. All three were somewhat silent t was as if the weight of the matter which was that day to be discussed pressed upon their spirits. The small-est of the trio, Septimus Codd by name, who was habitually taciturn, speke scarcely a word. He was a strange little man, a ninetcenth century vil-lain in a sense. He was a rogue and a vagabond, yet his one hobby, apart from his business, was a study of the past, and many an authority on eastern history would have been aston ished at the extent of his learning. He was never so happy as when burrewing amongst ascient records, and it was mainly due to his learning in the first place, and to a somewhat singular accident in the second, that the trio were now foregathered in Singapore. His personal appearance was a peculiar occ. His height was searcely more than four feet air inches. His face was round, and at a distance appeared almost boyish. It was only when one came to look into it more closely that it was seen to be covered Kilwater stopped and rubbed his hands with a chuckle. Decidedly the recollection was a pleasant one. "Well," he continued, "to make a long story short, I took advantage of my opportunity, and got his secret out of him by ... well, never mind how I managed it. It is suffi-cient that I got it. And the conse-quence is, I know all that is to be imprisoned by the Russians for seal-ing in prohibited waters, had becutor-inconvenience, and came just at the tured by the Chinese on the Yangtae, time when I was most auxious to and, to his own unextinguishable dis-grace, flogged by the French in Ton-quin. Not the least curious trait in "As a matter of fact, they brought it his character was the affection he en-tertained for Kitwater. The pair had brought on by excessive drinking. been together for years, had quarreled and that got me out of the difficulty, repeatedly, but had never separated. It must have been inamity, I think, The record of their doings would form | for be had no reason for doing away an interesting book, but for want of with himself. It was proved that he space cannot be more than referred had plenty of money left. What was to here. Hayle had been their part-ner is not a few of their curious un-the day before, he had told him he was tired of life." dertakings, for his courage and resource made him a valuable ally. Hayle looked at both with evident though how far they trusted each admiration. "Well, you two, taken together, Breakfast over they adjourned to beat cock-fighting," he said, enthusi-the veranda, where the inevitable astically. Then he added: "But what about the secret? What did you cigare made their appearance. What about the se "Here it is," said Kitwater, taking "Not here," Kit water replied. "There an old leather case from his pocket, are too many listeners. Come down | and producing from it a small piece of parchment. "There's no writing So saying he led his companions to upon it, but we have compared it with the water side, where he chartered a another plan that we happen to have, native boat for an hour's sail. Then, and find that it squares exactly." when they were out of earshot of the He leaned over Hayle's shoulder land, he hade Hayle pay attention to and pointed to a certain portion of the sketch. "First and foremost you must under-stand," he said, "that it's all due to "That's the great temple." he said; "and what the red dot means we are Coddy here. We heard something of it going to find out."

Well, suppose it is, what makes never put much trust in it. Then you send for me?" Hayle inquired, Coddy began to look around, to hunt suspiciously.

"Hecause we must have another "Hecause we must have another replied."

after awhile he began to think that good man with us." Estwater replied, there might be something in the story "I'm very well, but you're better. after all. You see it within way: You Codd's head piece is all right, but if it comes to ngfring, he might just as well be in Kensal Green. Isn't that "Sengkor-Wat-the old ruin at the so, little man?" ack of Burmah, near the Chinese Mr. Codd nodded his head,

"I said, send for Hayle," he refreamt of. Tumble-down palaces, marked in his quiet little voice. "Kit sent, and now you're here, and it's

"Fre seen Amber," said Hayle, with "Codd speaks the truth," said Kit-the air of a man who makes a remark water. "Now, what we have to do in hat cannot be lightly turned aside. to arrange the business part of the matter, and then to get away as raised cities. I've got no use for quickly as possible.

The business portion of the matter was soon settled, and Hayle was things, haven't you? You can use ru- thereupon admitted a member of the syndicate for the exploration of the ancient town of Sengkor-Wat in the hinterland of Burmah.

For the remainder of the day Havle was somewhat more silent than usual. "If there's anything in their yarn it might be managed." he said to himself that night, when he was alone in his bedroom. "Kitwater is elever, I'll admit that, and Coddy is by no manner of means the fool he pretends to "Are you joking, or is this sober carnes;?"

counts for something. Yes, I think WOOL TO Washed use it might be managed."

What it was he supposed might be effected he did not say, but from the smile upon his face, it was rejetent. smile upon his face, it was evident that the thought caused him considerable satisfaction

Next day they set sail for Bangoon.

The shadows of evening were slow WHEAT-Kitwater, Codd and Hayle, with two Burmen servants, were members, obcovered something that put him on tained their first view of the gigantic the track. Then I happened to remember that Years ago, when I was in in search. For many days they had Haned, an old man had told me a won- been journeying through the jungle, derful story about a treasure cham-her in a ruined city in the Burmese. They had experienced adventures by jungle. A Frenchman who visited the the acore, though none of them were place, and had written a book about it, of sufficient importance to be narplace, and had written a become as a mentions the fact that there is a legend amongst the natives that vast treasure is buried in the raims, but treasure is buried in the raims, but being compelled to retrace their being compelled to retrace their only one man, so far as we can discover, seems to have taken the trouble wire popular of the country their arrewire ponies of the country, their servants clearing a way before them with "Bigger than London, so Coddy route, for the most part, lay through their paraugs as they advanced. Their well-nigh impossible for them to bales the fragrance of roses when force a way through it. It was as if freshly cut. nature were doing her best to save the ancient city from the hand of the spoiler. At last, and so suddenly that 1,400 tons. it came upon them like a shock, they found themselves emerging from the jungle. Below them, in the valley, peering up out of the forest, was all hat remained of a great city, upon the ruined temples of which the actting ann shone with weird effect. "At last," said Hayle, bringing his ony to a standstill and looking down upon the ruins. "Let us hope we shall place, the wealth of the inhabitants. have penetrated their secret before and then goes on to tell how the king we are compelled to say good-by to took him to the great treasure cham-them again." them again.

A year ago, in haying time, William Sale, of Arcade, N. Y., but a pocket-"Hear, hear to that," said Kitwater; Septimus Codd, however, never book containing $750. A few days ago said a word; the magic hand of the he sold a load of hay to Ira Parker, of past was upon his heart, and was the middle of the load.

olding him spellbound. They descended the hill, and, when they had selected a suitable spot, deput two and two together if you want cided to camp upon it for the night. Next morning they were up betimes; the excitement of the treasure hunt was upon each men, and would Lee S. Sanders, of this place, tells how not let him tarry. It would not be ong now, they hoped, before they would be able to satisfy themselves as to the truth of the story they had seen told, and of the value of the hopes in which they had put their Almanas for 1992 and in it read some trust. Having eaten their morning stories of how Dodd's Kidney Pills had meal, they took counsel together, examined the plan for the thousandth Trouble time, collected their weapons and tools, bade their servants keep a sharp look-out, and then set off for justice he was seated on the throne in the courtyard of the Three-headed Elephants. Now what we've got to do is to find that courtyard, and find it we "But how do you know that the the city. The morning sun sparkled treasure hasn't been taken away years ago? Do you think they were upon the dew, the birds and monkeys chattered at them from the jungle, such fools as to leave it behind when while above them towered the myriad domes and sculptured spires of the Though they were well out of earancient city. It was a picture that shot of the land, and alone upon the once seen would never be forgotten. So far, however, not a sign of human boat, Kitwater looked round him suspiciously before he answered. Then life had they been able to discover; a pleasant smile played over his face. indeed, for all they knew to the con It was as if he were recalling some trury, they might be the only men within 50 miles of the place. [To Be Continued.]

A Frond Mother. A elergyman was recently called upon to baptize nine children. From number one to eight nothing went amiss. The ninth, however, proved to be a lusty boy, who soon succeeded in almost wriggling out of his somewhat seanty clothes. The clergy man, grasplife away back in Burman. He was very flush of money at the time, and ing the infant by the nape of the neck and by such garments as still remained kept throwing out hints, when we were alone, of a place he knew of where there was the higgest fortune secure, was proceeding with the service, when the mother, overcome with admiration for her child, and scarcely realizing the solemnity of the occasion, remarked in a loud voice: "He's a nice livile lump, sir; isn't he?"-London

Once upon a time a diplomat was walking with his close friend Deceit, who was dressed in his usual attractive friend Diplomacy." he said.

"It is not necessary," she answered.

"He is a close friend of mine, whom I know by the name of Tact."

Moral.—A nettle by any other name would atlng the same.—N. Y. Herald.

Why she dave It Up. She had offered her Kloudike outfit AN ITALIAN CAPTAIN

"You said that nothing could turn Cured by Pe-ru-na of Catarrh of the Stomach After Doctors Failed.

Hon. J. D. Botkin, Congressman from Kansas, Writes an Interesting Letter.

"But you seemed to be so determin

"And now you've backed out entirely and positively refuse to stir a step. We

"Well, you would if you once say great prospector.-Chicago Post.

The Quall Supply.

THE MARKETS.

CATTLE Native Steers ... $ 2 to 98 1 to

PLOUR-Winter Wheat 2 is a WHEAT-No. 2 Red in its

CORN-No. 2 OATS-No. 2 (new) PORE-Meas (new) ST. LOUIS COTTON-Middling BEEVES-Steers

Other Grades
WHEAT-No 2 Red (new).
CORN-No. 2
OATS-No. 2 Mixed (new)...

WHEAT No. 2 Boring No. 2 Red CORN No. 2 Yellow

OATH No 1 Miles OATH No 1 Miles NEW ORLEANS FLOUR Fligh Grades

WHEAT-No. 2 Red COHN No. 2.

ODDS AND ENDS.

weight 3,400 tons and the machiner

town is 80 gallons per head of popu

Since the close of the chil war the state of Louisiana has spent more

The commission appointed to rear

than $30,000,000 on Mississippi levees.

portion Oklahema has announced th

otal population of the territory to 600,000, with one representative for every 22,000 people, and one senator

WHAT AN ALMANAC DID.

Matthews, Ark., Aug. 25th.-Mrs.

with my kidneys all my life and wa

"I chauced to get a copy of Dodd's

cured many very bad cases of Kidney

"My husband bought a box and I be gan to use them and in a short time we were surprised and delighted at the wonderful improvement in my case.

can not say too much for Dodd's Kidney Pills. It was a bucky day for me

"I believe Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure any one who suffers with lidney

an almanae saved her life.

constantly growing worse.

lation daily, for all purposes.

for every 45,000.

COTTON-Middling

"I was," she admitted.

an't understand it."

ou from your purpose."
"That's what I thought."

chat a fright I am in a Klondike cos Then she fixed up her bangs a little gave herself a audden twist to make her dress set just right, and it was evident to even the most unabserving that the world had lost the service of another There was a time when quail in corsiderable number were taken in this state, but the number of state quall brought to this market has now dwindied to almost nothing. More comes from Pennsylvania, but not nearly so many as were formerly received from that state. The great bulk of the supsw comes from the west. We get unil from, among other states, Ohio. indiana and Michigan, and from Illinois. We get large numbers from Missouri, more, perhaps, than from any souri, more, perhaps, than from any other state, and from Kansas and from the Indian territory. While the supply depends nomewhat upon the season, it is generally ample for all demands, and at prices no higher than formerly.—N. Y. Sun.

Captain O. Bertdetto of the Italian Barque "Lincelles," in a recent letter from the chief office of the Italian Barque "Lincelles," in a recent letter from the chief office of the Italian Barque "Lincelles, Pennacola, Fla., writes:

"I have auffered for several years with chronic catarrh of the stomach. The observable of the company are delighted at it!

Mr. Greesepaynt—Yes; but my part from the table of your pamphlets I began the use of Peruna, and two bottles have as these do not verify one of your pamphlets I began the use of Peruna, and two bottles have as these do not verify the claim not only that dyspepsis is due to all my friends. "—O. Bertoletto.

In catarrh of any part of the body. Peruna will care catarrh of one part, it will care catarrh of any other part of the said for your case, and he will statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his yaluabile ad-

The following letter from Congress man Botkin speaks for itself:

WASHINGTON, D. C. Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, O.: My Dear Doctor—It gives me pleasure to certify to the excellent earative quali-ties of your medicines—Pestomach and residence in Washington has increase your medicine have given me almost complete relief, and I am sure that a continuation of them will effect a permanent cure. Peruna is surely a wonderful remedy for catarrhal affections. J. D. Botkin iil cure catarrh of any other part of full statement of your case, and he will Catarrh is catarrh of any other part of the body.

Catarrh is catarrh wherever located, and the remedy that will cure it anywhere will cure it everywhere.

This statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

SKIN-TORTURED

Sleep for skin-tortured Babies and rest for tired, fretted Mothers in warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, and gentle anointings with CUTICURA CINTMENT, purest of emollients and greatest of skin cures, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of CUTICURA RE-SOLVENT PILLS. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent, and economical of treatments for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humours, with loss of hair, of infants and children, as well asadults.

MILLIONS OF MOTHERS

Use Corrects Star, assisted by Corrects Olympur, the great skin cure, for preserving, purifying, and heautifying the skin, and for all the purposes of the totlet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women mee CURLULA SOAP in the form of haths for autorying triintions, inflammations, and nicerative weaknesses, and for many mantive, antiseptic purposes.

COMPLETE TREATMENT FOR EVERY HUMOUR Consisting of CUTTOURS NORF, to cleaned the skie; CUTTOURS Observable; to look the skie; and CUTTOURS TERROLIZED FILES, to cool and cleaner the blood. A SINGLE SET is often sufficient to cure the usest octuring, disparing, which is, but not consistent to cure the usest octuring, disparing, which is, burning, and scall plumours, raches, and irritations, with loss of hair, when all obe fails.

HEAT, CORN, PORK and New York Stocks Bought and sold on a margin of $20 and upwards, Correspondence solicited Information FREE. Private Wires. Boyd-Swartz Commission Co., St. Louis, Mo.

LIVE STOCK AND

MISCELLANEOUS Electrotypes

> FOR SALE AT THE LOWEST PRICES BY

keep your saddle dry TOWER'S FISH BRAND HARDEST STORM A. N. KELLOGG NEWSPAPER CO.

worst cases. Book and references PREE. Br. HAZARD In constant use all ove

OPIUM WHISKY and other drug

the world for the last sixty six years. The oldest an GUN POWDER

Bad breath, dark rings around the eyes, bloated feeling, heartburn, dizziness, headache, palpitation of the heart are all symptoms of bad digestion and a clogged condition of the bowels. These symptoms should never be disregarded as the dangerous ills that afflict the should never be disregarded as the dangerous ills that afflict the body spring from just such beginnings. The proper course is to purify, strengthen and regulate the vital organs without delay, and for this purpose the celebrated tonic medicine and purifier PRICKLY ASH BITTERS will be found to possess merit of the highest order. It tones the stomach, helps digestion, sharpens, the appetite, cleanses and strengthens the kidneys, liver and bowels, thereby promoting harmony of action and regularity in the system. thereby promoting harmony of action and regularity in the system. A few doses will produce a marvelous improvement. Strength and energy return, the breath is purified, the complexion is cleared and it exercises a bracing effect in both body and brain. Every family needs this grand remedy as a safeguard against sickness.

BOLD EVERYWHERE AT $1,00 PER BOTTLE.

Suits and Slickers

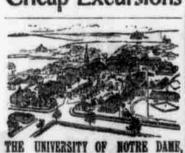

For Over

Thirty Years

California any day in September or October for only $33 from Chicago or $25 from Kansas City. Corresponding rates from East generally tickets good in tourist sleepers or chair cars — enjoyable ride on the shortest, quickest, pleasantest line. Little Liver Pills. Also one fare, plus $2, round trip to Great Southwest, first and third Tuesdays, August, September, October. Exceptional opportunities for homeseekers in magnificent San Joaquin Valley, Cali-fornia. Money-making investments.

Write to Gen. Pass. Office, A. T. & S. P. R'y, Chicago, for California land folders Cheap Excursions

HAMLIN'S WIZARD OIL TOOTHACHE

Allen's Ulcerine Salve Sures, lanketen Choren, Researchyl Clause, White Bereille, Lay, Frenchissen, cyd all saren of lang standing. Paulit laiben. My unit, Me and Die, J. P. Aldagis, M. Pani,

Carter's

Breut Good

CARTER'S FOR HEADACHE. FOR BILIOUSHESS. FOR TORPID LIVER. FOR SALLOW SKIN.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

